English-available real estate brokerage for foreigners

Real estate buying, selling, and leasing brokerage and purchasing support

We offer a diverse selection of properties, ranging from residential to investment to foreigners who are considering purchasing (or renting) real estate.

We also provide clear and concise instructions on the purchasing process, related expenses, and mortgage loans. While the process can be complex, we offer English assistance to alleviate any hurdles. Please feel free to contact us.

Support for real estate purchase

Property viewing assistance and purchase consultation

According to the customer needs, we provide information on available properties that satisfy your needs. Our English speaking staff will guide the property and answer any questions you may have.

Signing of contract and loan application

Once you have selected a property to purchase or rent, we will process your application and finalize the contract. We will facilitate the negotiation of purchase price and contract terms with the seller, on your behalf. Additionally, we will explain the contract and important matters, as well as fees and taxes in English. If you consider to apply for a mortgage loan, kindly consult with us beforehand. We will recommend financial institutions that offer loans to foreigners.

Property settlement and delivery

We will handle the remaining payment procedures at financial institutions in the presence of a judicial scrivener, and provide services in English until the property is delivered.
